

Tour Destination : Lempuyang + Tirta Gangga + Ujung Garden + White Sand Beach.

Lempuyang

Descriptif :

Pura Lempuyang is a temple close to Amed. A very nice trek to visit the 6 temples of Lempuyang. We use to call it the 1000 stairs temple, there are in fact 1700 Stairs to ascent in the scenical montain of Seraya. From the top temple (1175 m) you can see all east cost. Many monkeys are on site, and this is the only thing tourist need to worry.

What to bring :

Like in every temples in Bali, you have to wear a Sarong , the traditional clothe (like a pareo). Think to bring water, sun glasses and Hat. Temple ask everybody for a donnation...

Tirta Gangga

Descriptif :

The aquatic garden of Tirta Gangga was built in 1948 by the last king of Karangasem. It has been destroyed in 1963 during the last volcano eruption of Gunung Agung and rebuilt as the original a few years later. The Name Tirta means Holy water and Gangga is to remind the mother river of Indouism There are also a few pool where people can swim.

What to bring :

Towel and swimsuit if you use the pool (they ask for extra payment to use the pool around 10.000 IDR). The entrance is 20.000 IDR per person in 2016.

Ujung Garden

Descriptif :

Unjung is very similar from Tirta Gangga but with an older architecture as the father of the last king built it. Very close to the sea, this aquatic garden is very relaxing to visit.

White Sand Beach.

Descriptif :

The white sand beach is 10 km away from Amlapura. The only white sand beach in the North east of Bali. A little crick surrounded by beatiful cliff. Have a grill fish in one of them palapa, then enjoy swimming in the blue water.
